Nors.—When the oath is taken before a Justice of the Peace, the certificate of the clerk of a court of record should be added, under his seal of office, that the person who administered the oath is a duly qualified Justice of the Peace.

INSTRUCTIONS TO BIDDERS AND

POSTMASTERS;

Containing also conditions to be incorporated in the contracts to the extent the Department may deem proper.

1. Seven minutes are allowed to each intermediate office, when not otherwise specified, for assorting the mails.

2. On routes where the mode of conveyance admits of it, the special agents of the Postoffice Department, also postoffice blanks, mall bags, looks and keys, are to be conveyad without extra charge.

3. "Way bills" or receipts, prepared by postmasters or other agents of the Department, will accompany the mails, specifying the number and destination of the several bags, to be examined by the postmasters, to insure regularity in the delivery of bags and pouches.

4. No pay will be made for trips not performed; and for each of such omissions, if the failure be occasioned by the fault of the contractor or carrier, three times the pay of the trip will be deducted. For arrivals so far behind time as to break connection with depending mails, and not sufficiently excused, one-fourth of the compensation for the trip is subject to forfeiture. For repeated delinquencies of the kind herein specified, enlarged penalities, proportioned to the nature thereof, and the importance of the mail, may be made.

5. For leaving behind or throwing off the mails, or any portion of them, for the sdmission of passengers, or for being concerned in setting up or running an express conveying intelligence in advance of the mail, a quarter's pay will be deducted.

6. Fines will be imposed, unless the delin-

7. The Postmaster General may annul a contract for repeated failures to run agreeably to contract; for violating the postoffice laws, or disobeying the instructions of the Department of so returning to discharge a carrier when required by the Department to do so; for running an express as aforesaid; or for transporting persons of packages conveying mailable matter out of the mail.

8. The Postmaster General may discontinue or extend the service, in accordance with law, he allowing a pro rata increase of compensation for any additional service thereby required, or for increased speed, if the employment of additional stock or carriers is rendered necessary; and in case of decrease, outsilment, or discontinuance of service, as a full indemnity to said, contractor, one month's exits pay on the amount of service dispensed with, and a pro rata contractor, that in case of increased expedition, the contractor may, upon timely notice, relinquish the contract or, as a full indemnity to said, contractor, one month's exits pay on the amount of service dispensed with, and a pro rata contractor, one month's exits pay on the amount of service dispensed with and a pro rate contractor, one month's exits pay on the amount of service dispensed with, and a pro rate contractor, and the contractor of the contractor of the awarded to them through the whole contract terms.

18 Section 249 of the act of June 8, 1872, provides that contracts for the transportation of the mail shall be "awarded to the lowest bidder tendering sufficient guarantees for faithful performance, without other reference to the mode of such transportation than may be necessary to provide for the due celerity, certainty, and security thereof." Under this law bids that propose to transport the mails with "celerity, certainty, and security," having been decided to be the only legal bids, are construed as providing for the entire mail, however large, and whatever may be the mode of conveyance necessary to insure its "celerity, certainty, and security," and have the preference over all others, and no others are considered, except for steamboat routes. The undersigned — , whose Post office address is — , county of — , State of —, proposes to convey the mails of the United States, from July 1, 1874 to June, 30, 1875, or route No. — , between — and — , under the advertisement of the Postmaster General, dated October 1, 1873, with celerity, certainty and security '(law of June 8, 1872), for the annual sum of — dollars.

The proposal is made with full knowledge of the distance of the route, the weight of the mail to be carried, and all other particulars in reference to the mode of conveyance necessary to the state of the route and service; and, also, after enrel examinations of the laws and instructions attached to advertisement of mail service; and of the provisions contained in the act of Congress of June 8, 1872, — Bidder.

The undersigned, residing at — , State of — , undertake that, if the foregoing bid for carrying the mail on route No. — be accepted by the Postmaster General, the bidder will, prior to the last of June, 1874, enter into the required coligation or contract to perform the service proposed, with good and sufficient surities.

The undersigned, residing at — , State of — , undertake that, if the foregoing bid for carrying the mail on route No. — be accepted by the Postmaster General, the bidder will, prior to the last of June, 1874, enter into the required coligation or contract to perform the service proposed, with good and sufficient surities.

The undersigned, residing at — , State of — , errifies, under his cath of office, that he is acquainted with the above paramtors, and the certificate until the sum of the bid signature with the above paramtors, and able to make good their guarantee; and that lidder and guarantors are above the age of 21 years.

Bids of $5,000 and upward must be accompasigned by a Postmaster.

23. In all cases where the routes are not fully supplied with the necessary locks and pouches, it is the duty of the Postmaster at the head of the route to make requisition on the Contract Office of this Department for such locks and pouches before 1st of July next provided the route be let.
